CRASH OF TAXICABS BREAKS CHAUFFEUR'S LEG, BRUISES FARES

Machines Wrecked in "Side Dancers and Singers Rush for Swipe" Collision That Tumbles Occupants About.

A taxicab containing Mr. and Mrs. Hundred and Second street and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Fagin of No. 511 Amsterdam avenue was going south in Central Park West at 1.6 A. M. today when another taxl, pulling out from the Hotel Majestic at Seventy-second street to go north got in the way. There was a "side swipe" that sent and spun the north bound one against a tree. Albert Eberhager, thirty-eight, of No. 281 East One Hundred and Fifbound cab and tried to escape by jumping. As his car turned over he was caught underneath it and nothing could be seen except his head.

As the taxi capsized the two couples inside were cut and bruised, but not enough to require a doctor's attention Policemen Lockhardt and Hardcastle of the West Sixty-eighth street station fished them out through the top, after forcing the door open.

A number of baggage handlers from the hotel assisted in raising the machine from Eberhager, who was taken to Polyclinic Hospital suffering from leg. His passengers went home in another taxi.

Benedetti Gerardo of No. 21 Cleveland place was driving the other taxi, and had four fares inside, but as they all escaped injury the police did not take their names. Both taxis were put out of commission. Eberhager's was so badly damaged it had to be pulled from the tracks with a trolley and tow

The fire, which started in some imitation lyy about a wooden tream leading down the stairway from the street, had been discovered by the patrolman.
The smoke drifted into the main building, and the supermittendent, Philip Kramer, and his wife started from their none on the top floor down the stairs. Before she had got to the bottom Mrs. Kramer was overcome by smoke and had to be carried to the street by her husband. She was revived.

The flames were put out by the fire-tea. The camage was about $100.
